Methodist Choir To Sing Psalms At Vesper Rites

Singing anthems based entirely on the Psalms, the combined choirs of the First Methodist Church, 1551 El Prado, will present a choral vesper service in celebration of Thanksgiving Sunday at 4 o'clock.

Four choirs, comprising some 125 voices, will join in the processional which begins the program.

Anthems to be presented are the work of composers representative of varied periods in church music, from medieval to modern. The final number will be Ralph V. Williams' arrangement of "The Old One Hundredth Psalm Tune," composed for the coronation of Queen Elizabeth in 1953. It will be sung by both choirs and congregation, who will be accompanied by the organ and a brass ensemble from the Torrance Area Youth Bands under the direction of James Van Dyck.

Soloists for the program are Jean Bateman, Eva Brundin, Ruth Cathey and Ed Hutchison. Playing a trumpet descant for one anthem will be Gary Tiernan. Donald Shelby, minister of music at the church, will direct the choirs, and Ruth White will be at the organ.

Stewardship Rites Slated By Lutherans

Stewardship Sunday will be observed at the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, 330 Palms Verdes Blvd., this Sunday, according to the Rev. Lyle B. Gangsel, pastor.

During the week there will be a special Thanksgiving Day service next Thursday at 9:30 a.m. Any time this week, good used clothing, bedding, shoes or footwear for children, infants or adults, sheets, pillows, pillowcases, blankets, and quilts may be brought to the church for the fall clothing drive for the Navajo Indian Mission. Each Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. there is mid-week Bible hour followed by the Youth-Adult Study Class.

On Friday at 8 p.m. the members of the Luther Club will gather for a game and tourney night to which they will bring canned goods and 25 cents to be used for Thanksgiving baskets to be distributed to needy families. All young people of professional age are invited to attend.

Thanksgiving Rites Set Next Thursday

The Rev. Donald Shelby, associate pastor of the First Methodist Church, will deliver the sermon at union Thanksgiving services to be held next Thursday morning at 10 in the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The Rev. Walter Stanton will preside at the services, in which 10 churches of Torrance join each year. Rev. Stanton is president of the Torrance Ministerial Assn., sponsors of the rites.

As usual, the offering at the service will be donated to the American Bible Society.

Rev. Miller To Take New Post in Iowa

The Rev. Richard A. Miller, who organized the Seaside Evangelical and Reformed Church here two years ago, will preach his last sermon at the church, 230th and Ocean Ave., this Sunday.

Rev. Miller is leaving to accept a pastorate at St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Ft. Madison, Iowa. He organized the church here more than two years ago and supervised the construction of a chapel, which is the first step in a building expansion program.

A dinner in his honor was held by church members Tuesday night and funds were collected to set up an organ fund for the new church in his honor.

A former pastor in Colorado, Rev. Miller started the new church, which now has 54 members, under the auspices of the California Church Federation. For about a year, the chapel was built.

He has served as a member of the National Missionary Committee of the California Synod of the church, president of the board of directors of the Evangelical Benevolent Assn. of California, director of the Los Angeles Church Federation, and a member of the executive committee of the Southern California Council of Protestant Churches.
